-April 23, 2015, 6:15 p.m. at South Huntington Jewish Center, Melville, NY-

(Dix Hills, NY) April 2015- On April, 23rd, 2015, the Long Island Children's Choir (LICC), Long Island's Choir for a Cause, is honored to present a joint choral performance with the Bach Children's Chorus (BCC) of Toronto, Canada at South Huntington Jewish Center, 2600 New York Avenue, Melville, NY at 6:15 p.m. Tickets may be purchased online at www.ticketriver.com/event/15020 for a suggested minimum donation of $15.00.

"The Bach Children's Chorus, under the direction of renowned children's choir conductor, Linda Beaupre and accompanied by famed choral composer, Eleanor Daley, has a wonderful reputation throughout Toronto for their beautiful, musical sound and professional approach of its four choirs," stated Colleen Regan, Artistic Director for the Long Island Children's Choir. "By providing our singers with the opportunity to interact with members of BCC's senior treble ensemble as well as work with Ms. Beaupre in preparation for the joint performance, they will be exposed to an incredible collaborative, inspiring experience."

Proceeds from this performance will benefit LICC's grant recipient, The Book Fairies, whose mission of fostering literacy and helping bring books to children in underserved communities truly resonated with LICC members. In addition, new and gently used books will be collected at the door.

"The Book Fairies is thrilled to be the recipient of the Choir for a Cause grant. The money raised will go directly toward running free book fairs for students in school districts in need on Long Island," shared Amy Zaslansky, founder of The Book Fairies. Video: <http://bit.ly/1EW03CF>.
