"Sharing in the Magic of Reading"

April 28, 2015

Dear Long Island Children's Choir,

Thank you so much for the wonderful donation of $1000.00 and 15 boxes of books to The Book Fairies. We were thrilled to be a part of the "Choir for a Cause" concert and even more amazed at the sheer level of talent among the performers. These children are destined for great things!

We can't wait to use the grant money to directly support the free book fairs run by The Book Fairies charity. Two schools have already been selected to receive book fairs this spring, Washington Rose Elementary in Roosevelt and Archer Street Elementary in Freeport.

The wonderful donations of elementary books are headed to the Hempstead School District. Currently, there is a lack of books in the classrooms, making it near impossible to fight the illiteracy epidemic in the area. The middle school books are headed to a free book fair at the Edmund W. Miles middle school in Amityville. This book fair is run two times a year and the students look forward to starting their own libraries at home. It's so exciting to see the joy in the students' eyes when they realize all of the books are free and they will have books in their house. The high school books are designated for Roosevelt High School's free library cart program that is offered once a month and the adult books will be used to stock the free library at the Freeport train station. The preschool books are headed to Winthrop University Hospital's "Reach Out and Read" program where every child who visits the clinic receives a free book.

We are only just beginning to scratch the literacy surface in our area. The Book Fairies can't wait to delve into additional projects across Long Island and metropolitan New York. It is because of generous donors such as yourselves that The Book Fairies can continue to bring a little reading magic to those in need right in our own backyard.

Thank you again and good luck in your next singing venture!

Sincerely,

Amy Zaslansky
